

Business Analyst - Intern / Permanent

This is an internship leading to full-time employment. The Arikkan Development team is looking for an energetic Business Analyst who can understand, document and analyze business requirements; and communicate with the software development team to get the product developed to client's needs.

Job Code: SD-0002

Location: Vancouver, Washington

Qualifications: Good work attitude; willingness to learn; working with a software delivery team; open to travel

Job Responsibilities:

1. Identify and document business, technical, product and process requirements
2. Ensure that the requirements set forth by the customer are captured and documented correctly
3. Analyze and understand the current state processes to ensure that the context and implications of change are understood by the client and the project team
4. Produce various requirement documentations
5. Work with the client to prioritize and rationalize the requirements
6. Assist with scope management
7. Provide expertise on the overall business processes around which the project is focused and provide needed business expertise in those areas
8. Participate actively in all phases of the project including planning and analysis, design, development, testing and implementation, related to their area of expertise

Desired Skills:

- Analysis
- Problem Solving
- Communication
- Experience in SDLC will be a plus
- Experience in Project Management will be a plus