

Application System Tester (Entry Level) - Intern / Permanent

This is an internship leading to full-time employment. The Arikkan Development team is looking for an energetic Application System Tester who can understand, document and analyze business requirements; and create test scenarios for the application.

Job Code: SD-0003

Location: Vancouver, Washington

Job Responsibilities:

1. Identify and document business, technical, product and process requirements
2. Prepares test procedures, test cases and coordinates user and systems and integrated test activities related to business and client needs
3. Documents and analyzes test results
4. Evaluates, recommends, and implements test tools and strategies
5. Writes, implements, and reports status for system test cases for testing
6. Ensure that the requirements set forth by the customer are captured and documented correctly
7. Analyze and understand the current state processes to ensure that the context and implications of change are understood by the client and the project team
8. Produce various requirement documentations
9. Work with the client to prioritize and rationalize the requirements
10. Assist with scope management
11. Participate actively in all phases of the project including planning and analysis, design, development, testing and implementation, related to their area of expertise